

GET PREPARED

Mayday falls slap-bang in the middle of the week, so make sure you have the day off work, school, college or university. Call a strike (you know it makes sense), phone in sick (or well!), bunk off - do whatever it takes to be on the streets of Mayfair on Wednesday 1st May.

For Mayday in Mayfair to be a huge success we all need to prepare. Make costumes, banners, flags, placards, whistles, claxons and musical instruments. Get hold of inflatables, balls, nets and other props. Make food and bring it to share. Look at a map of Mayfair and consider the possibilities.

Contact us for leaflets and stickers or produce your own. Spread the word. Get together with your friends and form an affinity group - a group of people you know and trust who will look out for each other on the day. Above all get planning as Mayday is fast approaching!

MAYDAY 2002

MAYDAY FESTIVAL OF ALTERNATIVES

10 days of events which celebrate and demonstrate autonomous, anti-capitalist and co-operative culture. This will be shown through many useful hands-on workshops, plus lots of fun film showings, art exhibitions, parties/picnics, and actions.

FRIDAY APRIL 26TH - MONDAY MAY 6TH

MAYDAY IN MAYFAIR!

This year sees us return to the traditional place of Mayday celebrations - Mayfair in London. Mayfair is the area bounded on the north by Oxford Street, on the east by Regent Street, on the south by Piccadilly & on the west by Park Lane. The original Mayfair was once a teeming hotbed of fun, frolics and freedom for the working masses. Mayday in Mayfair will be a fluid, spontaneous and exciting return to the Mayfayre, happening everywhere at once, without a fixed starting point or finish.

WEDNESDAY MAY 1ST - MAYFAIR 1PM

...the struggle continues

The MAYDAY FESTIVAL OF ALTERNATIVES stemmed from a collective need to respond to the often asked questions: 'What are you for? What do you actually want?' The festival aims to answer this by actively showing the resourcefulness of DIY culture as an alternative to consumer, market and profit-driven culture. This includes squatting, creating grassroots social centres, sharing (as opposed to selling) practical skills, and showing independent political art exhibitions, films, gigs and performances. This is our collective attempt to show solidarity, mutual aid, free association, and radical history and politics, in practice, in particular to non-activists and people curious about anti-capitalist politics. MAYDAY IN MAYFAIR - WEDNESDAY 1ST MAY,

Four distinct but intertwined elements:

1. CRITICAL MASS

Mass bicycle (or wheel barrow/horse and cart) rides are a traditional part of mayday celebrations today as much as they were in the past. Villagers and townfolk often took to the streets and lanes, together, in a show of leisurely strength and solidarity. Got a pair of wheels? - be it a bicycle, roller-skates, a wheelchair, a shopping trolley, or a skateboard - join in!
North ride 7.30am Camden Town tube, South ride 7.30am Camberwell Green.
Meet in the afternoon at 12.30pm Hyde Park Corner

2. THE TRAVELLING CIRCUS

A mobile, spontaneous, and collective performance full of jesters, jugglers, minstrels, musicians, show girls, gypsies, pagan sorcerers, fire eaters, stilts walkers and clowns - reclaiming the roots and culture of mayday! Fancy dress, a sense of humour and the guts to shake loose and inhabit new characters and roles - the true spirit of circus culture - is the order of the day.

3. THE WAKE FOR CAPITALISM

A vibrant and luminous celebration of the imminent death of capitalism; a celebration of the new world waiting to be born; a resistance in remembrance of those incarcerated and murdered by capitalism; and a manifestation of our defiance as a movement to be labelled 'dead' by the state, media and politicians the world over post September 11. Dress all in black or white. Don the mantle of death with skeleton or ghost masks.

4. CARNIBALL

Gameball was a mass multi-sided festival of play, enjoyed in villages throughout the country in the 15th and 16th century. The objective of gameball was to keep the ball moving from one end of town to the other. In the 17th and 18th centuries, people often called gameball get-togethers with the aim of pulling down the fences around enclosed land. This year's version of gameball has many balls and inflatables (bring them with you), with the main goal being to keep co-operating, moving and having a jolly good time. Our goal is a new world!

For the all the above gather at 1pm in Mayfair. To be followed at 5pm by "No One is Illegal", the Sexual Freedom Coalition event in Soho at 5pm, & later in the evening a gig at Chats Palace.
